What the FedExCup Fall decides

- The Fall closes the PGA Tour season and sets status for the following year.
- Players ranked 51-60 in the FedExCup secure fuller 2027 status and signature-event access.
- Full FedExCup members keep cards inside the top 100; others chase conditional status.
- Two new stops debut in 2026: the Biltmore Championship (Asheville) and Good Good Championship (Austin).
